

NEWS FROM VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA

CHEAP, EFFECTIVE, PALATABLE.

APENTA

HUNGARIAN NATURAL APERIENT WATER.

The Analysis shows that the richness of Apenta Water in natural saline aperients renders it the safest and most remedial laxative and purgative. READ THE LABEL.

A WINEGLASSFUL A DOSE.

ALSO

SPARKLING APENTA

(NATURAL APENTA CARBONATED), IN SPLITS ONLY.

A Refreshing and Pleasant Aperient for Morning Use.

Sole Exporters: THE APOLLINARIS CO., Ltd., London.

CHATHAM NOTES

Junior Order of United American Mechanics Is Organized.

BIG HORSE FAIR TO-DAY

Railway Contractors Have Accident to a Train of Work Cars. No One Injured.

CHATHAM, March 17.—Chatham Council, No. 177, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, was organized here Friday night with seventy-two members. A delegation from a Danville council conferred the rights of organization, the Masonic Hall being used for the occasion. The following officers were installed: Past Councilor, L. T. Jones; Councilor, C. R. Warren; Vice-Councilor, J. E. Lanier; Treasurer, J. W. Collier; Recording Secretary, O. W. Hogan; Financial Secretary, E. H. Shelton; Conductor, J. H. Geyer; Warden, B. G. Farrow; Inside Sentinel, L. C. Bryant; Outside Sentinel, W. E. White; Trustees, G. C. Giles, J. M. Jones and C. H. Haymes.

The order begins with very flattering prospects, and is composed of hustling young men from nearly every walk of life.

The Staunton River Council No. 176 was organized at Heights, Pennsylvania county, eighteen miles from this place, very recently with twenty-two members. Visiting brethren from the Elba Council conferred the rights of organization, and the following officers were elected and installed: J. D. Hunt, Jr., councilor; C. A. Hogan, vice-councilor; G. W. Edwards, treasurer; D. T. Rorer, recording secretary; C. R. McManey, financial secretary.

Several applications are now pending before the council, and the membership promises rapid increase. Monday night is the date at which, according to the late constitution, the regular March term of county court would have fallen, and the time-honored custom will be very much in evidence by the large crowd of county people that will be present. The crowd from other parts of the State and other States will be large, and the number of horse dealers will excel any other day of the year.

Harman and Company, contractors, on the Southern Railway at Galveston, eight miles north of this place, several days ago were dumping a load of earth from a train of dinky cars, had twelve cars badly torn up by the trouble giving away and precipitating the whole several feet. This is the second occurrence of this kind recently. In the first several men were badly injured.

Mrs. James Purnell and baby, of Winona, Miss., are visiting Mrs. Purnell's parents, Judge and Mrs. James L. Tredway.

Miss Mamie Blake returned Thursday from an extended visit to friends in Northern Virginia. She was accompanied by the Rev. Mr. Lynchburg, was this week the guest of Mrs. E. H. Shelton. Miss Edmonds, accompanied by Mrs. Shelton, left on Friday for a short visit to friends and relatives in Greensboro, N. C.

FINE EXHIBIT.

Buckingham to Have 1,000 Pounds of Minerals at Exposition

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BUCKINGHAM, VA., March 17.—Postmaster Noble has been in Lynchburg this week on the Federal jury. R. S. Ellis, president of the Buckingham Bank, has been "under the weather" for several days.

Miss Fannie Fitzgerald entertained the music and art students of the Buckingham High School at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fitzgerald, on Friday evening.

Buckingham people are making an earnest effort to get a fine exhibit from this county for the Jamestown Exposition. The board of supervisors appropriated $500 for the purpose, and on Monday a county exhibition was held to secure agricultural exhibits. J. H. Noble is actively pushing for a large mineral exhibit, and purposes to have at least 1,000 pounds of ore from every mine in the county. The slate people have promised a fine exhibit of that product from eleven quarries, so that Buckingham minerals will be very much in evidence.

Mrs. Whitcomb Pratt, of Farmville, will spend Easter at home with her mother, Mrs. Mariah Mosely. Mr. Perkins Mosely and wife, of Baltimore, Md., also spend a few days with his mother.

Mr. Dick Grigg has resigned his position with Mr. A. C. Garnett, Jr., and is attending school.

The Ladies Social Club met on Wednesday with Mrs. J. B. Nowling, spending a very pleasant evening with their charming hosts.

TELEGRAPH OPERATOR WHIPS LUMBERMAN

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BRIISTOL, VA., March 17.—As the result of a dispute over a message, B. B. Burns, president of the Tug River Lumber Company and one of the most prominent lumbermen in Virginia, had an exciting encounter with Hoge Blackley, a young clerk in the Western Union Telegraph office here, this evening. Blackley used a chair on Burns, whose face was smeared with blood and one cheek seriously bruised, when the men were separated by an officer. Not satisfied with the outcome, Burns insisted on renewing the fight.

BECOMING A MOTHER

Is an ordeal which all women approach with indescribable fear, for nothing compares with the pain and horror of child-birth. The thought of the suffering and danger in store for her, robs the expectant mother of all pleasant anticipations of the coming event, and casts over her a shadow of gloom which cannot be shaken off. Thousands of women have found that the use of Mother's Friend during pregnancy robs confinement of all pain and danger, and insures safety to life of mother and child. This scientific liniment is a god-send to all women at the time of their most critical trial. Not only does Mother's Friend carry women safely through the perils of child-birth, but its use gently prepares the system for the coming event, prevents "morning sickness," and other discomforts of this period. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Book containing valuable information free.

The Bradford Regulator Co., Atlanta, Ga.

CONFERENCE OF UNITED BRETHREN

Church Took Decided Stand on the Question of Divorce.

SCRIPTURAL GROUNDS ONLY

Bishop Miller Preached the Annual Sermon and Appointments Announced.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
EDINBURG, VA., March 17.—The Virginia Conference of the United Brethren Church, which will formally adjourn to-morrow morning, took a decided stand in the divorce question. Ministers were forbidden to marry divorced persons who had been separated on any but Scripture grounds.

Bishop Miller preached the annual sermon this morning. Rev. E. W. McMullen, of Dayton, was ordained by the bishop, assisted by Presiding Elder W. F. Greeves and Rev. A. Shammack.

Appointments were announced as follows: W. F. Greeves, presiding elder; Martinsburg, A. B. Wilson; Winchester Circuit, S. K. Wine; Berkeley Springs Circuit, C. D. Bennett; Berkeley Springs Station, G. P. Hitt; Frederick Circuit, E. A. Staunton; West Frederick Circuit, C. J. Racy; Jones Spring Circuit, (to be supplied); Gadsden Circuit, B. N. Spott; South Branch Circuit, E. E. Neff; Inwood Circuit, A. J. Seacrest; New Creek Circuit, C. P. Dyke; Bayard Circuit, W. S. Ran; Lost River Circuit, L. E. Brill; Toms Brook Circuit, L. A. Racy; Prince William Circuit, H. B. Ritter; Edinburg Circuit, S. D. Skelton; Keyser, S. R. Ludwig; West End, Ida M. Judy; Cumberland Mission, W. S. Mitchell; Pendleton Circuit, J. W. Brill; Franklin Circuit, J. W. Starr; Churchville, G. B. Fadely; Rockbridge Circuit, J. W. Maaden; Staunton, G. W. Stover; Roanoke Station, C. H. Crowell; Augusta Circuit, J. C. S. Myers; Dayton, T. C. Harper; Harrisonburg, A. S. Hammack; Shenandoah Circuit, W. D. Good; Albemarle Circuit, J. L. Arkenbright; Lacey Springs Circuit, A. V. Vandermuth; Pleasant Glen Circuit, J. H. Brunk; Pleasant Valley Circuit, W. H. Sampson; Elkton, N. P. A. Cupp; Roanoke Circuit, T. E. Boyd; Harrisonburg (colored), G. A. Newman; Angus, Rockingham (colored), T. K. Clifford.

TUESDAY CLUB MEETS.

Mrs. J. W. Lindan Entertains Members With Euchre.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GREENSBORO, N. C., March 17.—The Tuesday Club was entertained this week by Mrs. J. W. Lindan in her usual charming manner at her home in Summit Avenue. Euchre was played at four tables and after many exciting games the club adjourned. Mrs. Lindan had won the greatest number, thereby being the winner of the prize, a lovely cup and saucer.

Ices were served the guests, in which the color scheme of white and white was most effectively carried out. Mrs. T. Gilbert Pearson entertained very informally at bridge Wednesday afternoon.

Thursday was ladies' day at the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Club, and a number of the fashionable set availed themselves of the privilege and enjoyed their favorite game—bridge—whist—for several hours.

Those playing were Mesdames Dattie, Henry, Livingston, G. S. Bradshaw, H. L. Hopkins, Paul Lindley, David Dreyfus, W. L. Allan and Caesar Cone.

Mrs. David Dreyfus entertained at euchre on Friday afternoon. The house was most effectively decorated. The house cut-flowers, Mrs. Dreyfus was assisted in entertaining by her guest, Miss Rosebaum, of Lynchburg, Va.

A three-course luncheon was served, in which the violet decorations were carried out most elaborately. The honor prize was an immense bunch of palms and violets, while the prize for the highest score was a cut-glass violet bowl, and was won by Mrs. Caesar Cone.

PATRICK HENRY'S PEW.

Schoolchildren of Williamsburg to Endow a Pew in Bruton Church.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., March 17.—A movement is on foot among the school children of Williamsburg to honor the memory of Patrick Henry by dedicating to him a pew in Bruton parish church.

No better method of showing honor to the memory of the great patriot and orator, as Bruton Church is the church he attended while a member of the House of Burgesses, and afterwards as Governor of Virginia. At present there is not a tablet to his memory in the church.

In order to accomplish their purpose, contributions of a few cents are being asked of the school children of Williamsburg. With the money obtained, a handsome memorial will be erected in the church.

Miss Nannie C. Davis, in charge of the Williams and Mary Model School, is at the head of the movement, and contributions are being sent to her.

FUTURE ORATORS IN JOINT DEBATE

Literary Societies of William and Mary College Hold Celebration.

"SHALL CUBA BE ANNEXED?"

This Was the Subject Discussed. Original Poem Read by Mr. Wagner.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILLIAMSBURG, VA., March 17.—The people of Williamsburg were entertained at Cameron Hall Friday night by the Phoenix and Philomathean Literary Societies of William and Mary College, in a joint celebration.

An excellent program was rendered by the "future orators and debaters," and the entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd, which completely filled the hall.

The Williamsburg Band entertained the crowd with delightful music during the intervals between the selections.

E. F. Shewmake, Jr., of the Phoenix, presided over the meeting, and made the opening address, alluding to the work of the literary societies at the college, and their object.

The declamations, "The Vagabond Prince," by E. W. Koonitz, of the Philomathean, and "The Raven," by L. B. Franck, of the Phoenix, were excellent, and the audience showed their appreciation of both with loud applause.

The debate following the declamations was probably the most interesting feature of the program to the majority of the audience. The question of the debate read, "Resolved, That the United States should annex Cuba, giving her the rights of a Territory."

For the affirmative was J. E. Roach, of the Philomathean, and J. B. Torrell, of the Phoenix, for the negative.

Both debates were very entertaining, and showed a thorough knowledge of present-day affairs on the part of the youthful debaters.

The debate was followed by orations on "Problems of the Republic," by J. D. Wing, of the Phoenix, and "Visions," by J. H. Bowen, of the Philomathean. Both orations were excellent, and the orators met with much applause.

The exercises were closed with an original poem by J. J. Wagner, of the Phoenix.

HAVE FINE TEAM.

Randolph-Macon Academy Begin Season With Bright Prospects.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FRONT ROYAL, VA., March 17.—At a meeting of the candidates for the Randolph-Macon Academy baseball team, "Bony Hall," the lanky star of last season, was chosen captain for 1907.

The prospects for the nine are unusually bright this year.

Captain Hall will play in the outfield, and Melville, who made such a splendid record last year, will be back in the first field, pulling down the long ones. Bruce Richardson is making a good showing "in the box."

Among the new fellows there is much good material. "Whitney" Warren gives promise of pitching them a few. He made an enviable record in the Washington High School team last year.

Barton, of "Tome Institute" fame, gives promise of much ability at short. Earnest Kenner, a player of considerable experience, and with a splendid record, will "tag 'em all" down on third.

Joe Pullen and Elmer Snell give assurance that the position of catcher will be very creditably filled.

On the whole, the team gives promise of making an unusually fine showing in the game. Manager O. R. Bowen has arranged, which are as follows:

Gettysburg Prep, April 2, at Front Royal.

Fredericksburg College, April 6, at Front Royal.

St. James' School, April 13, at Front Royal.

Baltimore City College, April 20, at Front Royal.

Shenandoah Valley Academy, April 27, at Front Royal.

Augusta Military Academy, May 4, at Front Royal.

St. James' School, May 11, at Staunton.

Augusta Military Academy, May 13, at Fort Defiance.

Locust Dale, May 25, at Front Royal.

Shenandoah Valley Academy, date undecided.

Several dates are yet open.

A POULTRY FARM ON A LARGE SCALE

Williamsburg to Supply Chickens, Ducks and Squabs for New York Markets.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., March 17.—A new industry has just been started in Williamsburg, known as the Virginia Poultry Farm.

Dr. R. H. Fitzhugh, of New York, and Dr. John B. Spencer, of this city, are at the head of the enterprise, and E. B. Hudgins, formerly farmer at the Eastern State Hospital, will be manager.

RAILWAY MEN HELD IN JAIL

Freight Train Employees Charged With Stealing Goods From Train.

ONE MAN CONFESSED GUILT

Others Say They Will Be Able to Prove Their Innocence.

GREENSBORO, N. C., March 17.—Mention was made Friday of the arrest and imprisonment of three Southern Railway flagmen and brakemen—Perry Vail, Norman Denson and J. T. Banks—charged with wholesale stealing from freight cars belonging to the Southern Railway, and of which they were part of a crew. Last night, in default of $500 bond, two freight conductors—E. T. Tucker and A. L. Pritchett—were placed in jail on a warrant charging a similar offense.

Pritchett was conductor of the same train with the three who were already in jail, while Captain Tucker worked on a different freight train.

Last night Vail gave bond, and was discharged until Monday, when the hearing will be had before Justice D. H. Collins. This afternoon the two conductors gave bond, while Banks and Denson are still in jail.

The father came over from Randolph county to-day and secured bondsmen for his son, while Captain Pritchett's father came later from Albemarle county and fixed the other bond. Both of these men say they could have given bond in Spencer or High Point, where they were known, and have been compelled to go to jail. Messrs. C. S. Bradshaw and W. P. Bynum have been retained to appear for all the men at the preliminary hearing Monday.

Both Tucker and Pritchett held back from Randolph, who are highly respectable, to come to the scene in the way of giving a bond, hoping that they would not hear of their trouble at all; but upon being told that the newspapers would certainly publish the facts anyhow, and keeping the matter from their people was an impossibility, their fathers were communicated with by telegram and listened to their relief as fast as the trains would bring them.

Railroad employees are free to criticize the law authorities of the South, but the amount of bail required, saying to-morrow will be attended by a large crowd of interested employees, for it is the most important and serious charge made in a long time. The case has been worked up by Detective Ahern and others, and it is claimed will develop an astounding series of wholesale thefts by employees from the freight cars of the company. On the other hand, all the parties arrested except Flagman Vail, who admits his guilt, declare it is a case of mistaken connection of circumstances entirely, and they are innocent of the charge.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection they needed. However, after studying the act carefully, he is of opinion that with the aid of the common law and the Holt supplemental act, all such violations of the law can be indicted, and he asks that any and all such will be brought to his attention and the attention of the solicitors in the districts, in order that the parties to such unlawful agreements can be punished.

The Governor says his idea of an anti-trust law is a good one, and will afford great protection. Although he believes a mistake was made in not including a provision for the prohibition of unlawful agreements to lower prices of articles the trusts desire to buy, and that to this extent the farmers were not given the protection